

VILLAGE NEWS CROSSWORD 10 Grid 4 (My ref: 16.6)

A fun crossword this week – with a number of simpler clues.

Don't forget to send us feedback please – to author@richardwalsley.com or to my website (see below)

Across

- 1: Dial up the supermarket. (9)
- 3: Lively and lazy up there in outer space. (6)
- 9: Raised in this manner, novice veered off course. (7)
- 10: Moped undergoes modifications – travelled around on two feet. (5)
- 11: Norman loses the way and ends up with a girl. (5)
- 12: 'Lateral alteration' – the exact words used. (7)
- 13: Romance dawns with love – not a happy ending for her though. (1.5.7)
(A perfect anagram! Hint: What single letter might represent 'love'?)
- 17: It can be golden and is completely soundless. (7)
- 19: The last one, maybe, will suck up the drink. (5)
- 21: Displayed irritation at the top of the mountain, we hear. (5)
- 22: Old herb might live around some church. (7)
- 23: Got red about husband – smelt to high heaven. (6)
- 24: At last – non-drinker departs, unfortunately. (4)

Down

- 1: Pre-natal at Georgia's capital city. (7)
- 2: Bird of peace, right, sighted on the south coast! (5)
- 4: Scope for some ambition. (5)
- 5: Aspiring to cut down on pain-killer. (7)
- 6: Do yell, almost in a falsetto voice? (5)
- 7: Adam backed an IRA contingent and attacked England. (6)
- 8: Alan has second burst of energy – part of the growing process. (11)
- 14: Asymmetrical hob liqueur can be made on. (7)
- 15: Banished from house instead. (6)
- 16: Waddles around, taking his time? (7)
- 17: Natural or human, it's great on its own. (5)
- 18: Nice – little girl maybe – is clutching note. (5)
- 20: Almost reveal the French composer. (5)

